Injury and Indemnification:

If Pet Owner's rabbit accidentally dies, becomes ill, injured, or lost, Pet Owner waives and releases Pitter Patter Rabbitry and its owners from any claim arising from such an incident. If Pet Owner's rabbit bites or injures any of Pitter Patter Rabbitry staff or other rabbit, Pet Owner will be responsible for any resulting injury. I have advised Pitter Patter Rabbitry of all medical histories/current medical issues, regarding the health of my rabbit being boarded. I understand any environmental changes can cause stress-related illness or exacerbate pre-existing conditions in the rabbit and will not hold Pitter Patter Rabbitry or owners responsible for illness, injuries or death that may occur while in their care.

Any unclaimed rabbits come under legal ownership/guardianship of Pitter Patter Rabbitry after 30 days of abandonment/non- picked up rabbit. Any money owed for boarding including additional 30 days must be paid to resume ownership of said rabbit during pick up. I have ready this contract and agree to all terms mentioned herein.
